

ART RECOGNITION . . . Carol Bean, daughter of the Dennis Beans of Torrance, displays her prize winning painting in the Hallmark Art Contest sponsored by the Torrance Woman's Club and the Torrance Junior Woman's club. The painting, which won second place, is being admired by Mrs. Gordon Gmur, of the Junior Woman's club, and Paul Salzburg, judge. Jane Hoffman, who won first place, was not available for a picture. (Press-Herald photo)

Clubs Sponsor Contest

Announce Winners In Hallmark Contest

Winners of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and Torrance Woman's Club co-sponsored Hallmark Art Contest, were announced Saturday, Feb. 20 at the Torrance Recreation Center. Mrs. F. M. Shaw, Art chairman of the Torrance Woman's Club, announced that Miss Jane Hoffman, Bishop Montgomery High School, won first prize of $100 and Mrs. Tony Borges, Art chairman of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, announced Miss Carol Bean, also of Bishop Montgomery, as second place winner, awarded $25.

The title of Miss Hoffman's painting was "Free You Are" following the contest theme "Freedom in Growth." Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman, 1717 Via Montemar, Palos Verdes. She is studying art under the direction of Sister Rose Margaret at Bishop Montgomery.

Miss Bean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis P. Bean, 21528 Vaccaro Ave., Torrance. Born in Swinton, England, she is also studying art under Sister Rose Margaret. The title of Carol's drawing was "Not Marble Nor the Gilded Monuments."

Judging the contest were Mr. Paul Salzburg, Mrs. Robert L. Smith and Mrs. Anna Lee DeHoag.

The Torrance Women's Clubs are affiliated with the Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs.

JOKAY LOUVIER
... Accepts Ring

Louviere Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Louvier, 22605 Evalyn Ave., Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jokay, to Thomas Glynn Paterson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Paterson of Encino, former Torrance residents.

The future bride announced the romantic news last week by "passing-the-candle" to girls at her residence, Twin Pines, on UCLA campus. She is a graduate of South High school in Torrance, class of 1963, and is majoring in mathematics at UCLA.

Mr. Paterson is an art major in sculpture at Pierce College in Woodland Hills. No wedding date has been set by the couple.

Charles W. Montagues Off on European Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Montague, 1810 Knox St., San Fernando will leave Saturday on a five months tour of fifteen countries of Europe. Mr. Montague, son of Mrs. Fay Parks of Torrance and brother of J. Parke and Ralph H. Montague, also of Torrance, is principal of the Hubbard St. School of Sylmar and is on a six months sabbatical leave.

the city by Mr. Montague to the Mayor of San Fernando, Spain.

On April 25, the couple will leave Barcelona, Spain, on a 60-day tour of the continent. When their son Art, arrives in Paris they will continue their tour of Great Britain, Scotland and Wales.

The trio will arrive in (Continued on Page B2)

Linda Howell Will Wed Mark Pirman on April 3

Miss Linda Diane Howell, will become the bride of Mark Owen Pirman on April 3 at the Torrance First Nazarene Church.

The announcement of their daughter's wedding plans is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Howell, 1508 Fern Ave., Torrance.

The future bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1963. She attended the Pasadena Nazarene College and is presently a sophomore at UCLA.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Plurkey of Santa Monica, was graduated from Santa Monica High School in 1956 and attended Santa Monica City College. He holds a commercial airline pilot's license received from Rose Aviation.

The bride-elect was honored at a pre-nuptial personal shower given by Mrs. N. W. Coward at her Long Beach home on Feb. 13. A Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Attending the shower were Mrs. Carl Williamson Cecil Howell, Leonard Barber, Claude Weddle, Clint Barber, Howard Barber, Gary Weddle, and Miss Sue Smith of Torrance.

Others were Mrs. Al Dominguez, Lakewood; Harold Karst, Montebello; Richard Weddle, Alhambra; Dean Karst, San Gabriel; Ed Ellis, Arcadia; Misses Mona Koons and Janice Orl, Pasadena.

LINDA HOWELL
April Bride
(Portrait by Seeman)

FRIENDLY PERSUASION . . . Pushing the ticket sales for the YWCA Fashion Benefit set for tomorrow evening is Mrs. Lee Stamps, selling a ticket to Mrs. Paul Crossman, publicity chairman, who gets her arm twisted by Mrs. A. A. Krauszer, general chairman. Proceeds will be used to send Joy Coffee to the National Y-Teen Conference in Washington, D. C., in August. (Press-Herald Photo)

YWCA Fashion Show Set Tomorrow Night

"Cherry Blossom Time" is the theme of the fashion show to be staged tomorrow evening by the Young Women's Christian Assn., Teenage Committee, at 8 p.m. at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

The show is a benefit to raise funds to send Joy Coffee to the Third National Y-Teen Conference in Washington D.C. from Aug. 8 to 14. Miss Coffee will represent the State of California.

Mrs. A. A. Krauszer is serving as chairman of the benefit. Committee chairmen are Mrs. W. C. Boswell, models, A. L. Campbell, refreshments, Edward Hansen, decorations, Lee Stamps tickets, and P. M. Crossman, publicity. Mrs. Dottie Towle, Y-Teen director, will assist with the models.

Fashions will be provided by Sears Roebuck and Co. who will also furnish four models. Nine models will be selected from the Y-Teens, Y-Wives and Board members.

Tickets, now on sale, may be purchased from any board member or from Mrs. Lee Stamps. Due to limited facilities at the YWCA those planning to attend are urged to purchase their tickets in advance.

89 and 95 Years Young Surprise Party for Two Birthday Girls

Mrs. Cora Belle Potts, who celebrated her 95th birthday on Feb. 10 and Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, who observed her 89th birthday on Saturday, Feb. 27, shared honors at a gala surprise birthday party given by Mrs. Potts' daughter, Mrs. Inez Allen on Feb. 16.

The party was held in the Friendship room at the First Christian Church after which guests were invited to the Fireside room where they were served a beautifully decorated birthday cake, topped with red roses, mints, nuts, coffee and tea.

Mrs. Allen, who was hostess to her own circle, Los Posas, invited five other groups of the First Christian Church and a number of guests to attend the double birthday celebration.

During the afternoon, Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will meet at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave. on Thursday evening, March 4 at 8 p.m. Vi Hubbard, counselor, will be in charge.

Club Honors Mrs. French

Mrs. Ellis Myer was hostess to her bridge club last Tuesday as a surprise farewell tribute to one of the members, Mrs. Harold French, who with her family will leave soon for Australia.

Luncheon was served after which Mrs. French was presented with a gift from the group. At the conclusion of an afternoon of bridge, high score was held by Mrs. Tony Santarella and second by Mrs. Myer.

With the hostess and honoree were Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Robert Powers, C. F. McLaughlin, Nick Dalley, Eric Borner, and Tony Santarella.

Mrs. Dailey will entertain the club on March 9.

Canadian Archbishop Visits Here

The Most Reverend Walter Foster Barfoot, immediate past Primate of the Anglican Church in Canada, and Archbishop of Rupert's Land, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh B. Percy at their home on Acacia Avenue, Torrance, last weekend.

The distinguished visitor, a long-time friend of the Percy family, expressed keen interest in the work and ministry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church here, of which Father Percy is the present rector.

His Grace, whose permanent residence is now in British Columbia, is enjoying a winter vacation in the Southland.

Plan Fashion Benefit

The South Bay Hospital Auxiliary, conducted her first meeting Thursday when the auxiliary met for a luncheon at the Pen and Quill Restaurant.

Mrs. Rupert, who has been a resident of Torrance for the past ten years, has been active in the Lioness Club of West Torrance, the Torrance Woman's Club, and the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

During the coming year she will direct the activities of the hospital auxiliary assisted by Mrs. Ralph Vroman, David Davis, Richard Nielson, R. B. Strawn, Robert Scholl, Joseph Fischer, Arthur Ross, Gayle T. Martin, Paul McGrath, Roy Galli and E. B. Thompson.

At Thursday's meeting, plans were made for the organization's Spring Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held at the Airport Marina Hotel on April 29. This is the Summer That Is '65 the

MRS. A. STANLEY WHITE III
... Weds in Episcopal Service
(Alfred-Fabris Studio)

Sharon Alpenfels is Now Mrs. A. Stanley White III

In a late afternoon ceremony on Sunday, Feb. 14, at the St. James Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, Miss Sharon Darline Alpenfels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald William Alpenfels, 16334 Van Ness, Torrance, became the bride of A. Stanley White III. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. Stanley White, Jr. of Santa Monica.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with an empire waist and bell sleeves trimmed with crystal beading. The sheath line skirt had a detachable train of matching peau de soie. The bouffant white silk illusion veil was secured by a cluster of white silk roses and the bridal noisette was of ivory roses and ivy centered by a pink rose.

The bridal entourage consisted of Mrs. Kenneth F. McEwen of Gardena, matron of honor; Bonnie and Connie Alpenfels, twin sisters of the bride; Jo Ann Dillon and Nancy Wylie as bridesmaids.

Richard White served as his brother's best man. Ushers were David Peacock, Donald Barrett, Peter Crosshore, and Michael Petty.

Rev. Samuel R. D'Amico, pastor, officiated at the marriage. A reception followed in the parish hall.

The newlyweds have returned from a honeymoon and are now at home at 528 S. Harvard, Los Angeles.

The bride was graduated from North High school in Torrance. She attended Woodbury College majoring in Interior Design. At the college she was a member of the Beta Sigma Phi honor fraternity, and Sigma Iota Chi sorority. Mrs. White is also a student affiliate member of National Society of Interior Designers.

Mr. White, a Santa Monica High School graduate, attended Santa Monica City College, UCLA, and Woodbury College majoring in sales management. He is employed by the Hormel Co.

New Officers Preside At Auxiliary Meeting

Mrs. Thomas C. Rupert, newly-installed president of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary, conducted her first meeting Thursday when the auxiliary met for a luncheon at the Pen and Quill Restaurant.

Mrs. Rupert, who has been a resident of Torrance for the past ten years, has been active in the Lioness Club of West Torrance, the Torrance Woman's Club, and the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

During the coming year she will direct the activities of the hospital auxiliary assisted by Mrs. Ralph Vroman, David Davis, Richard Nielson, R. B. Strawn, Robert Scholl, Joseph Fischer, Arthur Ross, Gayle T. Martin, Paul McGrath, Roy Galli and E. B. Thompson.

At Thursday's meeting, plans were made for the organization's Spring Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held at the Airport Marina Hotel on April 29. This is the Summer That Is '65 the theme of the benefit proceeds from which are used to provide nursing scholarships for four qualifying young girls.

MRS. THOMAS RUPERT
... New President